Meeting At Hyattsville.

Rev. O. P. Bush is conducting a series of meetings at Hyattsville this week. The meetings are held only in the evening, and are held in the pretty little Chapel which was recently erected by the people of that locality to be used as a Sunday School room.

Opera House Opens.

The new opera house recently overhauled and remodeled by Mr. W. J. Romans, was opened Saturday night under the management of Mr. Coleman Gulley. A large crowd was present who were loud in their praise both of the attractiveness of the building and of the performance.

Going To Buffalo.

Dr. J. M. Acton, of this place was selected as a delegate to attend the National Convention of the Woodmen, which meets in Buffalo on June 20th. He attended the State convention at Bowling Green when he was elected as the proper one to go to Buffalo. There were four other contestants.

Contract Let.

On Monday the proposals for the erection of the new school house at Manse in the Paint Lick district were opened. Mr. Joseph Roop offering the lowest bid, which was $1,550, was awarded the contract.

The people of Paint Lick are to be congratulated in this new acquisition to their already thriving neighborhood.

Mr. Terrill Resigns.

Because of the need of his attention and supervision on his farm, Mr. Givens Terrill has resigned his position as book keeper for the Garrard Milling Co. Mr. Terrill will be succeeded at the mill by Mr. Horace K. Herndon, who is an efficient book keeper and office man, and who will be an acquisition to this busy firm.

Electrocution Postponed.

Gov. Willson has granted ninety days respite to Shay Penman, who was sentenced to be electrocuted on the 6th inst., the electrocution was fixed for August 6th. The postponement was necessitated because of the fact that the electric chair is not yet in readiness. The contractors promise to have it in readiness by July 1st.

Hogs Vaccinated.

Mr. J. E. Robinson had eighty hogs on his farm a few miles from town, twenty of which were afflicted with cholera, seven deaths already having resulted from the disease.

Mr. Robinson had the entire number, sick and well vaccinated last week, and he tells us that since their inoculation with the virus there have been no deaths and that the well ones are showing marked improvement. The cost of vaccination was $50., but this expense would be but a trifle if the means employed should prove a success.

School Notes.

The commencement sermon will be preached at the Presbyterian church at eleven o'clock by Rev. H. C. Garrison, of Danville.

On Monday 2:30 p. m. the primary grades will give an entertainment in the High School chapel. The exercises of the intermediate grades will be given in the chapel on Tuesday at 2:30 p. m.

The address to the graduating class will be delivered at the Christian church, Thursday night, at eight o'clock, by Rev. B. M. Shive, of Paris, Kentucky.

Negro Thugs Kill Officer.

In Lebanon Sunday officer Robey was called to a tough portion of the city to quell a disturbance among some of the colored people. He arrested Jesse Smith and James Buckner and while he had them in custody, and was in a dark portion of an alley he was stabbed to death, there were sixteen knife wounds on his person, one thrust entering his brain and another his heart. The two negroes made their escape, but were recaptured and were rushed for safety to the Louisville jail, the citizens of Lebanon being worked up to such a pitch of excitement over the tragedy that mob violence, it was thought surely result, were the prisoners placed in jail there. They were indicted Monday, the grand jury being already in session, charged with murder.

Officer Robey was 55 years of age, was a fearless officer, and a highly respected citizen of the community.

Work Progressing On Light Plant.

Mr. Walker has a force of men at work reconstructing the light plant and his hope is to have it in operation by the first of June. The new building is to be of brick and is to be equipped with the latest improved machinery, and when completed, we hope to have lights second to no town of our class in the state.

Sale Continues.

The great closing out sale of Mr. H. T. Logan is still on in full blast and will continue until the entire stock is sold out. The people are now realizing how cheap the goods are going and every day brings new people into the store. Mr. Logan has a large fresh stock of goods and the people of this and surrounding counties never before had such a money saving chance.

Get Ready For The Fair.

The great Lancaster Fair is but a little over two months distant, July 26, 27 and 28th. Have you anything on your place that looks to you to be just a little bit better than anything you have seen, if you have, why not give it a little extra time and attention, get it in shape and see if you cannot succeed in keeping some of the money offered on their liberal premium list at home.

Mrs. Zimmer's Niece Dead.

Mrs. R. Zimmer has received notice of the death of Miss Freda Kist at her home in Baden, Germany on April 9th. Miss Kist was with Mrs. Zimmer here for several years and left for her far away home in company with Mr. Zimmerman in August last. Upon Mr. Zimmerman's return he brought with him a sister of Miss Freda, Miss Mary Anne Kist, who is now with Mr. and Mrs. Zimmer at the Kangarden.

Popular Man Leaves Lancaster.

Mr. W. L. Perkins, who for several years has been the local representative for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. will leave shortly to make his home in Cannel City, Ky. Mr. Perkins leaves because of ill health in the hope that the change will prove of benefit to him.

During their stay in Lancaster both Mr. Perkins and his estimable wife have made a host of friends who will regret to see them leave, but will wish them much prosperity in their new home.

Street Fair.

Lancaster is to have a Street Fair. Beginning Monday May 29th the Adams Amusement Co. with ten attractions, including Ferris Wheel, Merry-Go-Round and all the attractions carried by such companies will put their tents on the public square, where they will remain for one week. There may be some people in Lancaster to object to a street fair, but we have just enough toy left in us to anticipate its coming with pleasure. Anyway it is not often we have anything of this kind, so let us forget our objections and get at the enjoyment we possibly can out of the week of gaiety.

Postal Employees Busy.

The employees at the local postoffice will be exceedingly busy during the month of May. Every article passing through the office must be classified and counted. In addition to this the rural carriers are required to classify, count and weigh every article handled by them. All this additional labor is required in order that the postal authorities may get a line on the business, may ascertain the amount of mail handled, both by carriers and postmasters. The end of the fiscal year, by which the Government computes all their business, is June 30th and these preparations are made in anticipation of the winding up of the year's affairs.

Child Accidentally Killed.

Walter Fain Jr., the bright little seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fain of the Bekeye section of the county lost his life in a very unusual manner Monday afternoon. The little fellow had followed his father, who had gone out to clear away a large tree which had been uprooted by one of the recent high winds. When the father saw the tree into sections, the heaviest section of which was attached the massive roots covered with earth, sank back into the hole from which it had been uprooted. Unknown to his father, little Walter had crawled into this hole to play and his little life was crushed out by the heavy mass of wood and earth.

For Governor

Hon. Wm. Addams, democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky is pushing his candidacy and a number of News-papers throughout the state have come out for him. With head quarters at the old Inn in Loysville Mr. Addams and his friends are hard at work. They have employ Mr. Owen McIntire of Danville as press agent in this district and he is sending out some good articles to the newspaper and Mr. Addams is paying for them. Mr. Addams has struck a step in the right direction and while we are for McCrory and do not think Addams the right man or the strongest man in the final election, still he is proving that he is not a dead one and the people can eat about him and better understand what his principles and what kind of a man he is.

Former Lancaster Lady Dies In Arizona.

Mrs. Nannie Stevens died at her home in Douglas Ariz. After a long illness, the result of an attack of typhoid fever. Her remains were brought to Bowling Green, Ky. and placed at rest beside her husband who preceded her to the grave seven years ago. Mrs. Stevens was Miss Nannie Hopper, a sister of Messrs Louis, John and Edwin Hopper and Miss Jane Hopper of this place.

For County Judge.

The announcement of Mr. Clayton A. Arnold for County Judge of Garrard County in the last issue of this paper, came at the last moment and we were unable to make any comment on it. Mr. Arnold is known by nearly every person in the county and all know him to be a man of the highest honor and integrity a good democrat and well qualified to fill the high office of County Judge. Mr. Arnold is a business man and would guard well the best interests of the county should he be elected. He will prove to be a very popular candidate as he has an army of friends who will help him to win out. His record as sheriff of this county is sufficient proof that he will make a good county judge should he be elected.

School Closing.

Another successful year for the Lancaster Graded School is fast nearing its close. The past year has been one of the most successful in the history of the school, and while the number of graduates falls below the average, there being only two, yet the advancement of the pupils in the different grades has been fully up to if not above the average of other years.

The graduates this year are Miss Elizabeth Givens and Mr. Holbert Bastin.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. H. C. Garrison, pastor of the First Christian Church of Danville Ky., at the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning May 14th. The presentation of diplomas will take place at the Christian Church on Thursday morning May 15th.

On Wednesday evening May 16th

there will be held at the Presbyterian church a Declamatory contest in which five young ladies and three young gentlemen will take part as follows:

Misses Elizabeth Givens, Pattie Anderson, Georgie Sanford, Jennie Cox and Helen Robinson, and Messrs Holbert Bastin, Frank Tinder and John Roberts.

The winner of this contest will be presented with a gold medal by the school, and will also represent Lancaster at the Blue Grass or School Tournament to be held at Springfield, and in which will take part representatives from several of the Blue Grass Graded schools.

It is with a feeling of deep regret that the school gives up Prof. D. W.

Bridges as the principal of the Lancaster Graded School, he having given splendid satisfaction and brought the school to the present high standard, which they hope to maintain.

The Board of Trustees after carefully considering the many applications before them, have chosen Professor J. L.

Riley to succeed Prof. Bridges. Prof.

essor Riley is a native born Kentuckian, is originally from Ghent Ky., and was educated at Georgetown.

He had considerable experience as an educator, both in private and graded schools. He comes directly from the Georgia Military Academy at College

Park Ga., which is in the outskirts of Atlanta. Professor Riley comes highly recommended both as a teacher and a gentleman, and it is thought that no better choice could have been made for a successor to Prof. Bridges. Prof.

essor Riley will arrive about June 1st and he and his wife will take up their residence at the college.

The School Board has re-elected

Misses Robinson, Mason, Smith, Brashears, Anderson, Walsh and Mrs. Dar-ald and have chosen Miss Knapp West as a member of the faculty.

The trustees are seriously considering the addition of another teacher to the primary department, which will permit half term advancement of the upper classes.

The Lancaster Graded School is fast becoming known as one of the best schools in the state, with its efficient corps of teachers, who work untiringly for the advancement and best interest of the pupils, it has attracted many

"Lest We Forget."

There are many things left undone, unthought or negligently, which had they been done, might have resulted in great good to the community. Everybody's business is nobody's business, and because of this fact the error of omission is often committed. The object of this article is to simply refresh the memory of the public in general as to some things that are now under contemplation, and which to bring to a successful accomplishment will require eternal diligence upon the part of our citizens, the more who interest themselves, the better chance for ultimate success.

First, we wish to freshen your memory as to the proposed Electric line from Nicholasville, the people along the Lexington turnpike, the route over which the proposed line is to be built, generally speaking, are enthusiastically for it, one prominent farmer of the Bryantville section goes so far as to say he is willing to give the right-of-way, not only along the pike, but through his farm if necessary. There is very little opposition to the proposed route, and that weak in character, half-hearted we might say.

To the residents along the proposed route we wish to especially urge to be up and doing in behalf of the scheme; see these people who are opposed to it, point out the advantages to be derived from its construction, not only to individuals, but to the entire community, so that if we lose the road, which we have no idea we will do, let it not be because of lack of efforts upon the part of Garrard county people to secure it; and when the time comes to grant the right-of-way, if we hope it will shortly, let us be able to point to it with pride, and without a hit or draw back upon the part of any of our citizens.

We have heard a good many people argue that bringing Lancaster into closer proximity with Lexington, in so far as transportation is concerned would prove injurious to the town.

As to this, a gentleman who lives on the proposed line, and who is deeply interested in its construction, took the trouble to investigate this theory; he wrote to a friend in Georgetown, a town much closer to Lexington than is Lancaster, inquiry was made of a leading banker as to what effect the traction line had on Georgetown, his answer was that it beyond any doubt proved beneficial to that city.

The second matter to which we wish to call your attention is the proposed site of the Government building. As has been before stated in these columns it will be necessary for the Legislature to cede the right to the U. S. Government to use the ground for government purposes. This will be done in January 1912. The representatives of the Government will then want a deed, and they will want an iron clad one, the strongest general warranty deed obtainable, and this must meet the approval of the Attorney General. Are we prepared upon short notice to furnish this? We are liable to be given but short notice when the time comes. Some time since, we heard it rumored that there was some controversy between the town and county as to the ownership of the park. Has that been settled, if not it should be, and that speedily. Get together gentlemen, come to an amicable adjustment of this matter, and when the time comes to make the deed, let us be able to give it without let or hindrance, and without delay.

Third, and "lastly", do not forget the distinguished visitors who are to be with us shortly, the members of the Louisville Commercial Club.

Their train will arrive here on May 24th at 1 o'clock p.m. and they will remain here about one hour. It would be but an act of courtesy to make their short stay here as pleasant as possible, and this will be done, but the co-operation is desired of every citizen of Garrard county who can possibly spare the time to come in and meet them, and to assist in making them welcome. Those who own automobiles are requested to bring them, as it is proposed to take them for a short drive about the city.

These people are out primarily for the upbuilding of Louisville's trade, boosting their own town, which every citizen of every town should do, but they are ever ready to assist the country town in their struggles for various things. This they have time and again demonstrated by rendering us timely assistance in the matter of getting better railroad facilities, and holding the facilities which we now have, and in various other ways.

Come out and help us show these city folks that their country cousins are not lacking in hospitality.

County Nominations.

Since a number of democrats have made an announcement to the people through the Record of their candidacy for the nomination for various county offices, we deem it proper at this time to again say to our readers in Garrard County that the editor will endorse his candidacy for a nomination, and will endeavor to be thoroughly impartial to all who seek nominations for county offices. We will, however, continue at all times to present and advocate those policies that we think for the best interest of the people, but not for the personal assistance or detriment of individual aspirants for county nominations. The Record is a democratic paper and will consistently support all democratic nominees, and thinks it best for the party organization to leave the merits of local candidates to be discussed and decided upon by the people. Any candidate for a county office desiring to present his position on public questions to the people may do so over his signature through the columns of this paper under the usual publishers regulations.

After being hammered orally for nine consecutive hours by the republican can minority members of the National house, the farmers free list was on Monday passed by that body in its original form, without amendment. The measure carried by a vote of 236 to 109, the democrats voting solidly for it and mustering fourteen republicans to their aid. If the measure passes the senate and receives the president's signature, it will place upon the free list agricultural implements and many other articles.

Representative Morse, an insurgent republican representative from Wisconsin, on Monday introduced another free list bill to cover wood pulp and material used in the manufacture of print paper.

Washington Flexner, head of the firm which bears his name, was formerly expelled from membership in the Louisville Stock Exchange. He was charged with violating the rules of the exchange by "scalping" commissions in certain transactions. Flexner paid $500. for his seat on the Louisville exchange, which was a record price for seats on the exchange in that city.

Timely Advice.

The Indiana Farmer offers the following advice in regard to the handling of poison about the farm, which in view of the recent poisoning of stock in this county, might be beneficially headed by our farmers.

Every summer we hear of accidental poisonings from Paris green or other deadly mixtures because they were left carelessly around in old cans where children or stock could easily get at the stuff. Often the poisons are kept in the house in unlabeled containers, and we frequently hear of a case where some person mistakes a poisonous preparation for some harmless powder. People are too careless about these things. Poisonous preparations are a necessity on every farm, but there is no reason why some people should handle them so carelessly. The only safe plan to follow is to have a place especially for these mixtures where children can't get at them. Keep them under lock and key. And when through with a box that has contained some poison put it into the stove instead of setting it into the yard. The stove is the only safe place for it.

Lancaster Boy Making Good.

The following article taken from the Knoxville (Tenn) Journal and Tribune of May 6th has reference to a young man known to most Lancaster people as "Tommie" Miller, who is now Dr. Thomas H. Miller, and is winning name and fame in the principal city of East Tennessee. The subject of the sketch is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Miller, who now reside at Arbor Lodge near Knoxville.

"Dr. Thomas P. Miller has returned to his home in Knoxville for the purpose of locating here in his profession as an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist. Dr. Miller has been assistant surgeon at the Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat hospital. He also has taken a special course in eye surgery at the New York Eye and Ear hospital, a special course on the ear at St. Bartholomew's, has done clinic work at Bellevue and for six weeks engaged in post-operative work for Dr. Chappell, noted eye, ear and throat specialist. He graduated from the medical department of Lincoln Memorial university last year, and then went to New York for hospital work, where he has since been."

West

William K. West, oldest son of Robert K. West and Mattie G. Roberts, was born in Lancaster, Ky., April 24, 1881.

Most of his life was spent in Washington, D. C. and Brookland a suburban town.

At an early age he was converted and united with the Brookland Baptist Church of which his father was pastor. In June 1908 he graduated from a Law School in Washington and soon after was married to Miss Helen Beale of that city.

The Government Land Department sent him to Portland, Oregon in the interest of Land Claims. Becoming attached to the city, he decided to locate there to practice his chosen profession. On April 13th he went to Seattle, Washington on important business and while there was stricken with Spinal meningitis and died April 25th.

His wife reached his bedside just a few hours before his death. His body was brought to Washington and placed in the Beale vault in Oak Hill cemetery April 25th.

He is survived by his wife and one child, Helen M. West, his mother, Mrs. Mattie R. West, three brothers, and one sister.

Though a young man he had filled positions of trust and prominence and had won many friends wherever he had been.

"He has ceased forever from labors, and is clothed in the garments of rest. He has entered the chamber of Silence, And lives with the purest and best."

Boys Scouts."

In many towns throughout the country bands of "boy scouts" are being organized. The youngsters are provided with natty khaki uniforms and accoutrements and present quite a martial appearance.

The scout movement has been developed first in England and later in America by Ernest Seton Thompson and General Baden Powell, and its motto is, "Be Prepared,"—for anything. It is not a military movement.

Scouts are first initiated as "tenderfoot" scouts and after they have learned to do certain things they may be advanced to "second class" scouts and later to "first class" scouts. Examinations are necessary before these promotions, so that by the time a boy becomes a first class scout he knows how to do lots of things in emergencies that his elders generally know little about. Everything the scout learns is practical.

Boy scouts are at all times subject to and guided by the "Scout Law" and it won't hurt you to learn the scout law from your boy. This is something of what the scout law contains:

"A scout's honor is to be trusted. If a scout says upon his honor that a thing is so, it is so. If a scout were to tell a lie when placed upon his honor he could be directed to hand over his scout badge and cease to be a scout."

"A scout does his duty. If in doubt as to what to do he stops and asks himself, 'Which one is my duty?' and does that one.

"A scout is courteous, and helpful to old people, cripples, sick or any one needing help, and tries to do somebody a good turn every day. He never accepts pay for accommodating people or doing little favors.

"A scout is loyal to God, his country, his employers, his parents, and he will stick to them through thick and thin.

"A scout is cheerful. If given an order he must carry it out; if he does not like it he may come back after he has carried it out and state his reasons against it. He never goes about things in a hang-dog sort of way.

"A scout is respectful to all. The penalty for swearing is to have a cup of water poured down the sleeve by the other scouts.

"A scout is thrifty. He saves his money so that he can be able to take care of himself at all times and be able to help others when sick or disabled."

"Not a bad code of morals which might well be emulated by their elders."

A Burglar's Awful Deed.

may not paralyze a home so completely as a mother's long illness. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a splendid remedy for women. They gave me wonderful benefit in constipation and female trouble," wrote Mrs. M. C. Dunlay, of Leadill, Tenn. If ailing, try them, 25c at R. E. McRoberts & Son.

Lancaster Boy Sees Mexican Battle.

Lewis H. West who for several years has held a lucrative position in the Treasury Department in Washington, has been compelled on account of ill health to seek a milder climate, and has been transferred to Douglas, Ariz., where he has a good position in the Custom house.

His many friends will be gratified to know that there is a marked improvement in his health even in the short time he has been there, and hope for an early and complete restoration to health.

Douglas it will be remembered was the scene of active hostilities between the Mexican Federals and Insurrectos recently. The following extracts from a letter from Lewis to a Lancaster relative gives an interesting account of what he saw of the battle: "We have had two battles here between the Mexicans. The Rebels took the town, I saw several of the federals fall in the fight. Bullets fell all over this town. Three were killed on the streets and eleven wounded. The Custom House closed down, the place was full of bullet holes. The officials had to get down in a ditch and wait until it was safe to come out."

A few days after the Federal army 1600 strong men came up to retake the town. This Mexican town is only half a mile from Douglas, the Mexican Custom House and the Americans are just about 15 yards apart. The first day there was not much fighting, but that night they drew closer to the town, took their position, and the next morning about 6:30 o'clock I awoke with a jump, the Federals had opened fire with their rapid fire guns and with a three pound cannon and Mauser rifles. I want to say it sounded like some fight. I spent the day on the far side of a brick house. They fought all that night, toward morning the rebels evacuated the town and fled and the federals took possession. The Custom house opened up for business the next day."

County Levy.

"So your hair is coming out very fast?" asked the drug man.

"Oh, yes, in handfuls," replied the neighbor.

"Did you ever try my hair tonic?"

"Oh, yes; but I really don't think that is entirely to blame!"—Yonkers Statesman.

HE WAS ENTIRELY TOO FAST.

Julius Kahn of San Francisco was at one time on the stage with Booth and Barrett, but later he went into politics, and himself elected to congress, and developed a sense of humor to contrast with the tragedy roles he played in the theaters.

One morning he went into the country hotel in California and gave his order for breakfast to a waitress who seemed utterly indifferent as to whether he got food or starved to death. She kept him waiting a long time, and his impatience grew, until he had to give vent.

Calling a waitress who passed by his table, he said:

"How long have you been here?"

"Who, me?" she asked sweetly. "I've been here three weeks."

"Then," said Kahn, "you're not the one I took my order. That one left before you came." —Popular Magazine.

A LOVELY SCHEME.

"Did you make any resolutions at the beginning of the year, Mrs. Stout?"

"Yes, I made one."

"What was it?"

"I kind of hate to tell."

"Pshaw! I won't repeat it."

"Well, I have resolved not to scold my husband once until I have counted ten."

"How does it work?"

"Beautifully. I was going to scold him yesterday, but before I had finished counting he had promised to buy me a diamond bracelet."

PUNISHED FOR HIS PUN.

Bix—Why are you so down on puns, old man?

Dix—A pun once cost me $50,000. Listen. Years ago two fat old aunts came to visit us. Dad told me to go into the parlor and pay my respects. I was a very smart young man. I went in and remarked in a cheery, offhand way that I had come to make my obeisance to my obese aunts."

Bix—But how about the $50,000?

Dix—They left it to the home for cats.

A VARIABLE ROUTE.

First Hobo—Joe, don't you kind of like my dem foofs that play goft?

Second Hobo—No; I'm fond of walkin' but when I start to travel I like to know which way I'm goin'.

SHOWING OFF.

Mary had a set of furs, For white, for yellow, and pink. And so much silk price is hers, She's always on parade.

GOOD RESOLUTIONS.

The ruler of Hades looked up from his morning correspondence as his secretary stood by with a red-hot pen to indict his fiery answers.

"Send all those bids back to the contractors we have with us," he ordered. "We get all our paving done free now about."

NOT A MARK.

"When I went to New York," said the able financier, "I didn't take $10 with me."

"That," replied Mr. Dustin Stax, "indicates a degree of caution which largely accounts for your subsequent success."

HOW HE FEELS.

Miss Gusher (to aeroplane passenger)—It must have been splendid riding around up there. Didn't you feel as though you owned all the world beneath you?

Timid Passenger—Well, I certainly had an idea that I was a great deal better off.

THE DOCTOR EVENED UP OLD SCORES.

"I don't mind the cost of living," muttered the professor, "so much as I do the cost of merely being kept alive."

For, the doctor had just presented his bill for services rendered.

HELP UP.

"Hands up!" exclaimed the western train robber. "Gimme your money."

"Too late," replied the tourist. "I get off at the next station and I've tipped the porter."

Harold's Broke.

"Why don't you go to the dance tonight, Harold? Haven't you any lame?"

"Yes, dad," said the Harvard student, "a flame, 'tut no fuel'—Life."

THE MONSTER.

Judge—You claim that your husband treated you brutally. In what way?

Plaintiff—We were quarreling and he darted out before I could get in the last word.

IT STARTED THE WORLD.

When the astounding claims were first made for Bucklen's Arnica Salve, but forty years of wonderful cures have proved them true, and everywhere it is now known as the best salve on earth for Burns, Boils, Scalds, Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Swellings, Eczema, Chapped hands. THE END OF TUBERCULOSIS

Concerning Predisposition.

By DR. LAWRENCE F. FLICK.

Some families undoubtedly are more prone to tuberculosis than others.

This is true not only of families but of races.

Predisposition is usually divided into three kinds—individual, family and racial.

The individual predisposition is often brought about by improper living and by excess in eating and drinking.

Family predisposition may be due to inherited tendencies or to environment under which the family lives.

Racial predisposition appears to hinge largely upon the length of time to which the race has been exposed to the disease and the resistance which the race has built up against the disease.

ALLEY GREGOR is one of the best trotting Stallions in Kentucky. He has a lot of style and finish and is a great acting horse. Don't wear any boots, just 9 oz shoes. He ought to make a great sire. His oldest colts are coming two's and show great speed and action. Any one wishing to see one of them can do so on the Lexington track where they are now in training.

This is a good chance for the people of Garrard County to breed into the best families of the trotting blood.

Look this horse's breeding over and see how many they have in the list both sire and dam.

This great trotting Stallion will make the season of 1911 at my stable in Lancaster, Kentucky, at $15. to Insure a living Colt Sound and All Right.

I am prepared to take care of mares on grass at 10cts per day. Lien retained on colts for service fee. Money due when mare is traded or parted with. Care taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.

For style and action, he can't be beat; has good heavy bone and a good foot and a noble disposition. He was one of the best breeders in Shelby county, Ohio; his colts sold as high as $500.00 from the tit. He has been shown in the fair ring all over the state of Ohio and has never been beaten by any horse.

This horse will make the season of 1911 at my place one mile south of Buekeye at the very low price of $12.50 To Insure a Living Colt.

FARMER'S COLUMN

space below this heading is for the exclusive use of our farmer subscribers, and is for the sale of stock, grain and such things on farm as the farmer cannot afford to advertise. No notice will be accepted over four lines, and will be only in two issues of the Record, free of charge.

What is looking good, oats is up and looking fine, spring grass is fine, corn planting is well advanced and tobacco beds are thriving, garden "sass" is all in the ground, some of it up and ready for late frosts; the spring work on the farm is well advanced, and everything so points to a prosperous year for the farmer.

Sheep cost less to take care of than any other class of live stock. They take less out of the soil they feed from, and improve it the most; still there are many farmers that have no sheep on the farm.
